OUT ON THE LIMB with George Viehus

CAMPBELL AVENUE IN the downtown area during the past week brought backwartime memories to many of us.

For the first few day, this town's ancient main drag, which is now undergoing its long-awaited resurfacingtreatment, looked very much like some of the bombed-outareas with which many of uswere familiar in World War II

The street also gave the impression that an earthquake had struck.

The pictures of Campbell Ave. on the front page last week, were taken on the first day the equipment had moved in. They could have passed for shots of disaster areas which we all have seen.

Of course, there are a number of people who claim that torn-up Campbell Ave. WAS OR IS a disaster area and has been for years.

And there are others who snidely maintain that is true even without the street being torn up.

But, at least, the "bombed out" portions of Campbell Ave. were controlled this time.

That's more than can be said about either an earthquake or a bombing.

THERE WERE SOME people who were so "incensed" by the torn-up condition of the street that they blasted the city officials for allowing such an activity to take place.

Ironically, in some instances, they were the same people who have bellowed loud and long for something to be done about the washboard condition of Campbell Ave.

Apparently they thought the street could be resurfaced by simply waving a magic wand over it and without disrupting the traffic flow.

Other critics pointed out that the thoroughfare had been in a badly bent condition almost since last April when it was torn up for the storm sewer installations.

They thought this was mighty poor planning on the part of the city. The storm drains and the new pavement should have been put in at the same time.

They didn't stop to explain how it would be possible to dig a ditch, install a pipe and pave a street in one operation.

THOSE WHO WERE aware of what was going on realized that a certain amount of inconvenience on the part of shoppers, motorists and shop-keepers was inevitable.

But it was their hope that the end result would justify the discomfort.

Most recognized that installing storm drains and resurfacing streets are separate operations.

Incidentally the two jobs were coordinated through the efforts of the city's public works department and a considerable saving to the city.

The street improvement project, as you know, replaces the entire width of the pavement. Due to problems that had not been anticipated, more than half of the street had to be removed during the storm drain project.

The normal procedure would have been to place new pavement in the storm drain construction area which, of course, would have to be removed when the street work began.

Admittedly casual observers would not realize what was taking place. They would think it was the usual tearing up-putting down-tearing-up process that was occurring.

THERE IS STILL ANother answer that can be given:

City officers wanted to see, if Campbell Ave. was as bad on the bottom side as it was on the topside.

That's the answer that was given in a similar situation in a different locality when a rough street was dug up and subsequently repaired.

THIS IS OUR FIRST COLumn after a two week respite.

Luncheon to aid youth job program

Congressman to speak at C of C sponsored affair next Tuesday

"Campbell Youth Employment" will be the theme of the Tuesday, Oct. 22 Chamber of Commerce luncheon at which Rep. Charles Gubser, 10th Congressional District, will be the keynote speaker.

Proceeds from the luncheon will be used to further the Campbell youth employment program. An estimated 300 Campbell business men, community leaders and interested residents are expected to attend the luncheon which will begin at 12 noon in the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, 1675 Winchester Blvd.

CHARLES GUBSER --luncheon speaker

Both Rotary and Kiwanis service clubs have planned to attend the luncheon in lieu of their regularly scheduled meetings for the week.

Gubser, in praising the Campbell youth employment program, said that "It is a rare adult who does not look back upon his first pay check as the biggest he ever earned. Gainful employment is the finest training for citizenship I have ever known."

More than 140 youths were employed last year from the summer employment push, according to Ken Mantle, president of the Campbell C of C. Mantle hopes for a total employment of at least 200 during the summer of 1969.

The United States Post Office, City of Campbell, the Campbell school district, service clubs, and private business concerns are cooperating on the program in order that any youth seeking gainful summer employment will not be denied the opportunity through lack of openings.

The C of C luncheon will open with the invocation given by the Rev. William H. (Ben) Gould, Campbell Methodist pastor, followed by the welcoming address by Mantle.

Ralph Weymouth will be master of ceremonies. He is chairman for the youth employment program.

Serving as chairman for the luncheon is Jerry Arca, Pacific Telephone manager for Campbell.

Ticket reservation deadline has been set for noon, Oct. 21. The tickets, according to Len Edholm, C of C manager, were specially printed by the IBM card plant.

Tickets for the $5 per plate luncheon may be obtained from C of C members or at the C of C office, phone 378-6252.

TICKETS FOR YOUTH--Miss Carol Benbow, right, Miss Teen Pacific Coast of 1968 and a Campbell High School graduate, and Ken Mantle, president of the Chamber of Commerce are hoping that the handful of tickets they hold for the Oct. 22 Chamber of Commerce luncheon all sell. Proceeds for the luncheon, at which Congressman Charles Gubser will be the featured speaker, will go toward the Youth Employment program for the year. The tickets are specially printed for the occasion by the IBM card plant on Dell Ave.

RAIN DROPS

During Oct. 12, 13 and 14 a total of .33 inches of rain was recorded, bringing the total for the 1968-69 season to .37 inches. Last year at this time .09 inches had fallen with a normal rainfall at this time at .84 . Last year the total rain for the season was 14.51 inches.

George Talley goes on board

George L. Talley, 44, of 3220 Jade Ave., San Jose, has been selected by the Campbell Union School District Board of Trustees to fill the vacancy resulting from the resignation of Vernon I. "Bud" Armstrong.

Talley and his wife, Frances, have one youngster attending Lynhaven School and two attending Blackford High School.

Talley received his education at San Jose State College.

Talley will take office at the next meeting of the board on Thursday, Oct. 24, at Castlemont School.

He will serve the remainder of the unexpired term of Armstrong through June 30, 1969.

At convention

All members of the City Council and Planning Commission plus City Manager Bob Stephens and other department heads are attending the annual three-day convention of the League of California Cities in Los Angeles.

The local delegation left Sunday for the big event and will return today (Wednesday)

The Planning Commission will meet in regular session next Monday, Oct. 21. The City Council held a special meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 8, instead of the regular date of Oct. 14.

The Council will meet as usual on Monday, Oct. 28.

TRIPLE-THREAT--It was a big day at Campbell Community Hospital recently when triplets Gregory, Charles and Bryan Van Wagoner, 3, all had their tonsils removed at the same time. They are shown here with their mother, Mrs. Charles Van Wagoner, 5995 Mayflower Ct., San Jose. In order to make sure that nobody had their tonsils removed twice, each child's first initial was marked on his forehead.

New process speeds up Campbell Ave. project

Traffic began moving on the "new" Campbell Ave. in the downtown area Friday morning less than five working days after the street had been closed for the long-needed and long-awaited $23,000 resurfacing project.

Only the base course, however, has been applied to the street so far. Before the end of the month, grading will take place to the curb and gutter and then the final "lift" will be applied.

The resurfacing project is the first, locally, to use the new "deep strength" or "deep lift" method in which 10-inches of asphalt is placed on graded and compacted soil, eliminating the base rock that was formerly placed on compacted soil.

Frank Lewis, project engineer for the city, estimates that because of this new construction method, the street was closed for about one-third of the time that otherwise would have been necessary under the "old" system.

In addition, he pointed out, the new construction method is not affected by wet weather to any extent.

The rains would have delayed the streetwork under the old method for another month, he estimates.

It is expected that the "final lift" will only take one day to be applied.

The resurfacing of Campbell Ave. followed on the heels of the major storm drain project that got underway last April and included placing the main trunk line in Campbell Ave.

Upon the completion of the $150,000 storm drain project by the contractor, Pisano Bros., the city awarded the street job to the Leo F. Piazza Co. on a low bid of $23,900.

Thus it was unnecessary to remove new pavement for the resurfacing project.

Lewis also pointed out that the storm drain project also made it possible to check the utility lines that are under the street.

A new main was laid by [illegible] Water Co. from First St. under the railroad tracks while the storm drain job was going on.

The sanitary sewer lines were found to be in good shape. But the PG&E discovered that one of their gas lines needed replacing.

Upon the completion of the base-course operation of the street last Friday, PG&E crews moved in to replace this old gas main with a new one. All the work on the utility underground main is expected to be completed before the "final lift" is applied.

City sells $1,620,000 in improvement bonds

Only $500,000 of unsold city bonds remain of the total $2,620,000 authorized by the Campbell electorate on Oct. 24, 1967 as a result of City Council action last week.

The Council on Oct. 8 approved the sale of $1,620,000 in bonds to the United California Bank with a net interest rate of 4.87 per cent, the low bid of the five that were submitted.

In addition to United California, bids were received from Wells Fargo, Crocker Citizens, Bank of America and Blythe and Co. The net interest ranged from the low of 4.87 to a high of 5.02 per cent.

The city had sold $500,000 in bonds prior to last week's sale. The net interest for the first $500,000 was 4.99 per cent.

The City Council had tentatively planned to defer the sale of bonds until next spring but decided to move up the date because of the uncertainty that the so-called Watson amendment (Prop. 9) might cause if adopted on Nov. 5.

The $500,000 remaining is all earmarked for street and traffic improvements.

At the same meeting when the bonds were sold, the Council discussed the recommendations made by the Planning Commission on amendments to the city's general plan based on the 701 study.

However, the council deferred action on any of the recommendations until the Oct. 28 meeting when a full attendance is expected. Only Vice-Mayor Homer Hyde and Councilmen Ralph Doetsch and Ed Rogers were present on Oct. 8.

The Council also deferred action on the application of Ed Williams for approval of plans for a warehouse-office at 80 Gilman Ave.

The Planning Commission had denied Williams' application without prejudice after continuing action as long as legally possible and specified that Williams could apply again for approval without filing fees.

The matter is expected to come before the Planning Commission on Oct. 21.

The problem that confronts both the Council and the Planning Commission on the Williams case, it was pointed out, is that the Planning Commission based on the 701 report has recommended that the Gilman-Dillon-Railway area be rezoned to multiples of medium and high density. It is presently zoned M-1-S (light industrial).

Thus the warehouse-office plan submitted by Williams for 80 Gilman is permissable now but would not be if the area was rezoned.

The Chamber of Commerce has opposed the rezoning of the area. Lowell Grattan, a C of C director and head of its industrial committee was present to protest orally the rezoning to multiples.

Grattan submitted photographs of a number of new and modern industrial buildings that have been built in the area under the M-1-S zoning.

Williams said that, although the new zoning might be good, he doubted that there could be any bank financing of multiples in the area adjacent to industrial structures.

The abbreviated City Council also reluctantly denied the appeal of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hamm of 916 Torero Plaza from the decision of the Planning Commission refusing them a variance on the height of a fence at their residence.

The Council also approved the calling of bids for rolling stock for the city consisting of one street sweeper, one rescue unit, one ½-ton van deliver; four sedans; three pickups and a sewer rodding machine.

Seven city vehicles will be traded in for the new equip-

Editorial

One year later

Just a year ago next week, the citizens of Campbell at the polls approved four bond issues totalling $2,600,000.

The approval of the bond issues by the necessary two-thirds majority vote was a tremendous achievement, for it has become quite common in recent years for the electorate to turn down bond issues.

There is no question but the passage of the bonds marked the start of a new era for Campbell.

This community has long needed a shot-in-the-arm to get moving and it is our opinion that the bond issues provided the needed injection.

Although in the 12 months that have elapsed since the successful election there has been little, if anything, done in which bond money has been used, the foundation has been laid and the brush has been cleared.

We submit that this community is on the edge of the greatest civic improvement program in its history and the next 12 months will see many of the civic dreams come to pass.

Last week the city sold $1,600,000 in bonds and previously had peddled $500,000. There only remains $500,000 of unsold bonds.

This means then that the money is available. Now the action can start.

The fire station on Sunnyoaks will probably be the first major expenditure from the bond funds. But the station does not get credit for being the first user of bond money.

That honor will probably go to the Local Improvement District that has been formed to improve E. Rincon Ave. Money has already been allocated for that project under the unique "one-third-two-third" formula that was developed for this city's street improvement bond program.

In order to stretch the taxpayer's money as far as possible, the minor street improvement program included in the $1,045,000 bond issue for streets and traffic safety that was passed last October specified that the city would finance one-third of the cost of improving minor streets in a given area provided the property owners involved would pick up the tab for two-thirds of the cost.

Property owners on E. Rincon Ave. are the first to take advantage of this novel approach.

Although the fire station on Sunnyoaks undoubtedly will be functioning within a year, it is almost a foregone conclusion that the new civic center in the so-called downtown area will also become an established fact by that time.

We were convinced that the civic center should have been located in the proposed 17-story tower at Bascom and E. Campbell avenues.

However, this is not to be as the offer of the developer, Fred Sahadi, was withdrawn--so the civic center is to be located in the so-called downtown Campbell area.

The city is now moving to acquire the needed property for the expanded downtown civic center site. Within the next year, the civic center should become more than a mere preliminary sketch on an architect's drafting table, which it is now.

While we sincerely believe that the civic center should have gone into the tower, we also recognize the fact that a new city hall and library in the downtown area will be a tremendous improvement over the present situation.

However, there is the danger that some of the stronger advocates for the downtown civic center may be expecting too much from the civic center.

The downtown civic center will not solve all the problems that have faced downtown Campbell Ave. all these years.

Some assume that the civic center will be the panacea for all the ills that have faced the main drag. They seem to think it is the utopia they have long sought. They may be disappointed.

Of course, the civic center in the Central Ave.-Grant-First St. sector will be a tremendous improvement.

And if the so-called loop system or its modified version ever becomes a reality, the downtown area will have an even greater impetus.

But these things will not happen overnight.

Before any drastic changes take place, private capital must get involved.

City officials may legislate and zone change all they want, but it still takes good hard cash to bring the changes about.

Yet despite these dire warnings, great things lie ahead.

This community stands on the brink of its greatest achievement--a face-lifting, image-changing program.

Many of us have admitted for some time that our city has long-needed a dramatic face-lifting job.

It could be that within a year you may not know the old gal.

the recess as much as we did.

We thought our fill-ins, Jack Healey for the first week and Grace Hebard for the second week, did exceptionally fine.

We enjoyed their columns almost as much as we do our own.

That really is only about half true.

But we have long claimed that when we get to a point where we do not enjoy reading what we have written, it is time to call it quits.

So far that has not happened.

ARE YOU AMONG those "chosen few" in this area (relatively speaking) who will continue to get the "Saturday Evening Post" instead of "Life"?

Or do you know what we are talking about?

As we understand it through a unique arrangement, "LIFE" has acquired an X-number of million or so subscribers of the "SATEVEPOST".

It seems that the "Saturday Evening Post" had such a large circulation that it became economically unfeasible to continue with that kind of operation.

It kept getting deeper and deeper into hot financial waters. A drastic move was necessary or the magazine would fold.

So it was felt, according to the way we understand it, that the magazine would be better off from an advertising point of view if it had a more select clientele as subscribers.

In other words, they were after quality more than quantity.

LIFE then apparently agreed for a price to take the excess millions of readers off the "SATEVEPOST" hands.

HOW THE MILLIONS OF drafted "LIFE"-to-be readers were to be chosen was not revealed.

And, frankly, no one seems to know even today how it was done.

People who are inclined to be a wee bit snobbish or condescending must be in a quandary.

For example, is it more "exclusive" to remain with the old "Post" or to become a "LIFEr"?

For instance, we were informed that we would no longer get the "Saturday Evening Post" but could become a new member of the "Life" family, if we so desired.

We haven't figured out yet whether or not to feel "insulted" about this transfer of reader allegiance by direction.

Does it mean that the Campbell area is sub-standard and does not offer the appeal that the "new" SATEVEPOST now wants?

In other words, Campbell is "OUT" but Monte Sereno and Saratoga, for example, would be "IN".

And how would a computer work it out?

But we betcha it is going to be darn tough on status-seekers.

Until the whole thing levels off, they won't know for sure which way to read.

Should they display the "POST" prominently and sneak in "LIFE"? Or reverse the procedure.

We doubt if it is a major crisis.

And we suppose they will let us buy a "POST" once in a while, even if we continue living in Campbell.

That is, if we don't make a steady habit of it.

For the record, by the way, there are no restrictions for subscribers of The Campbell Press.

We will take 'em from any place.

We even have a few subscribers in Saratoga who sneak their paper from the post office.

City Manager Bob Stephens reported to the City Council that James Pott, county public works director has informed him that the county's share ($50,000) of the cost of the Rincon Ave. pedestrian overpass was contingent on the sale of property by the county adjacent to the expressway.

Vice-Mayor Hyde took exception to that reasoning, pointing out that at the time the county had agreed to participate, the sale of real property or the $10 vehicle tax or anything else did not enter the picture.

At the same meeting, the Council authorized Bill Wren, city public works director, to call for bids for street maintenance projects, estimated to cost about $15,000. Wren described the areas that would be repaired.

At the request of Councilman Rogers, the city manager was also directed to investigate and report on the possibility of prohibiting camper tops and boats from being stored in front yards. Rogers also asked for investigation of whether live entertainment could be prohibited by city code.

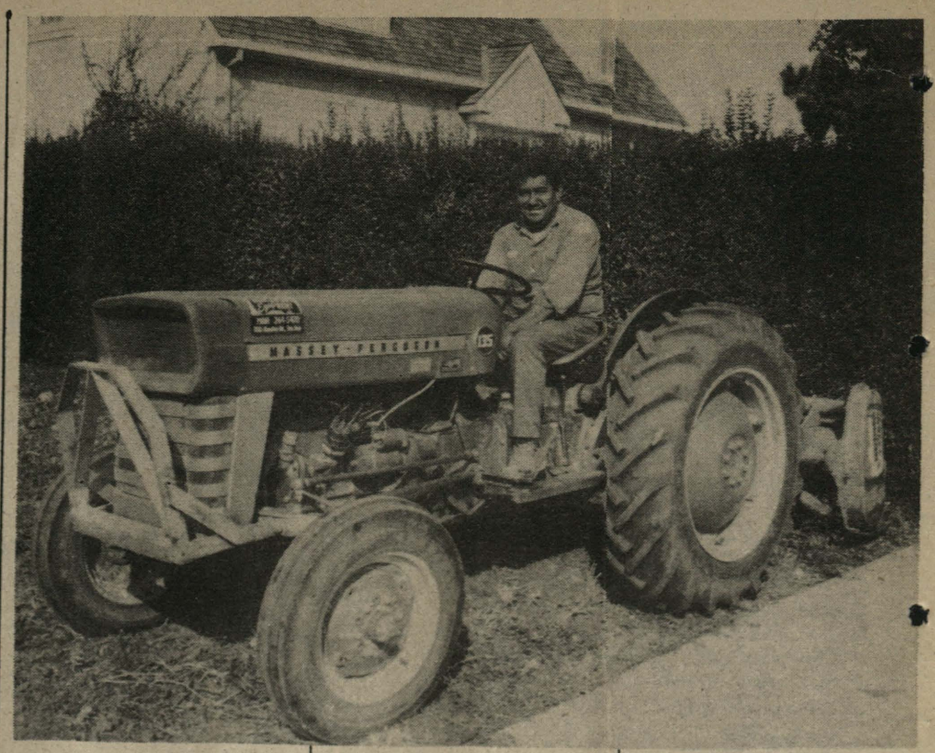
The awards were made at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon held Sept. 26.



THE JOB WAS DONE--An employee of Mac and Bob's Equipment Rental smiles broadly as he tractors the small proposed park on Alice Ave. and Winchester. Funds and work on the park have been obtained by public support, according to Mrs. Lawrence Tober, Alice Ave. resident who has been active in campaigning for park funds.

Building sags in Campbell

Despite the fact that the total building permits issued in September, 1967 far exceeded those issued in September this year, the total to date for the nine months this year is still $1.5 million ahead of last year ($4,020,938 to $5,556,210).

In contrast to last year, there were no permits issued last month (Sept.) for single family residences. In September, 1967, there were 22 such permits for $347,780.

The total for all permits in September this year was $103,646 while in September last year the total was $770,848.

Newly-weds at home

MRS. DAN DWIGHT CASTLEMAN

Janice Dale Reynolds chose a silk organza over imported silk when she met her bridegroom, Dan Dwight Castleman at the altar of the First Baptist Church of Campbell. The gown was designed with an A-line skirt and pearled empire bodice with a scooped neckline and fingertip pointed sleeves. Her shoulder length veil fell from a pearled rose and petal crown and she carried a white orchid, carnation and rose bouquet on top of a white Bible, a gift from the groom.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Carl Castleman, father of the bridegroom, and the Rev. Harry M. Liechty, Jr. Nuptial music was presented by Carl Reynolds, brother of the bride.

The new Mrs. Castleman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reynolds, 189 N. Milton. A Campbell High School graduate, she attended West Valley College and California Baptist College in Riverside. She is now employed at Sierra National Bank in Tiburon.

Janice chose her sister, Miss Shirley Reynolds as her maid of honor, and she made a lovely picture in a lilac Georgette crepe gown and she carried a white carnation bouquet. Attired in identical gowns of violet were bridesmaids Miss Sharolyn Kimbrough and Miss June Allcorn. The Misses Barbara Grce and Tanya Burgett served as junior bridesmaids in lavender crystalette gowns, with the candelighters, Miss Jan Burgett and Beth Mead in pink dresses. Tiny Susie Mead preceeded the party in lavender chiffon as the flower girl. Randy Grce was entrusted with the ring bearer role.

Mrs. Reynolds chose a pale blue silk shantung coat dress ensemble for her daughter's wedding with matching accessories complimented by a white orchid corsage. The mother of the groom was gowned in a pale green silk shantung suit, green petal hat, with beige accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Castleman, 3947 Via Salice. A graduate of Ouchita Baptist University of Arkansas, he is presently attending Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Mill Valley. Don Bryant served as best man with Dennis Turner from Mississippi and Bob Courson of Arkansas ushering.

The Fellowship Hall of the church was decorated in the lavender and pink color scheme for the reception immediately following the ceremony. Over 200 guests gathered to wish the young couple well before they left on their wedding trip to Las Vegas.

The newlyweds are now making their home in Mill Valley.

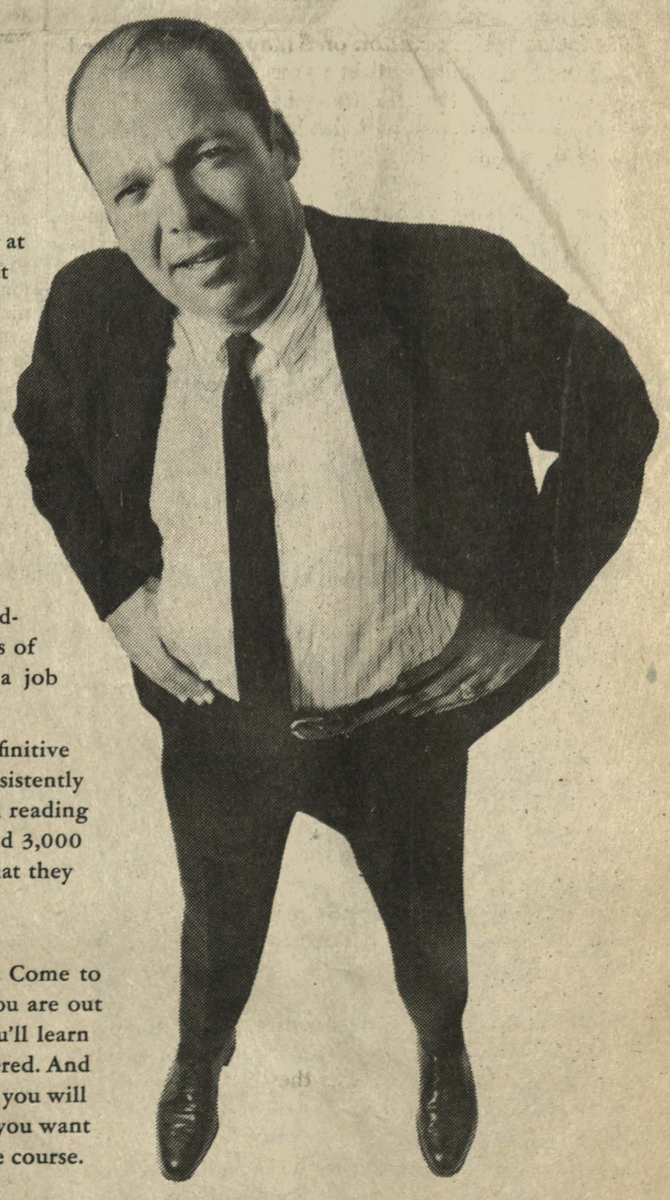
"I read 250 words per minute and I got through college. If that was good enough for me, it's good enough for my kid."



Sure, you can still get through college if you're a "normal" student reading at the average rate of 250 to 400 words per minute. It just means that throughout your college career you'll spend over 5,000 hours doing just your required reading! And that's a shame, because you could save at least 3,700 of those hours. How? By learning to read at least three times faster.

For five years now the Reading Dynamics Institute has guaranteed to at least triple your reading speed or refund your entire tuition. Thousands of people throughout the Bay Area have taken up this offer and are now reading 3 to 10 times faster. Results? Hundreds, even thousands, of irreplaceable hours saved for them to invest as they choose. Businessmen and professional people now spend more time in productive work. High school and college students have time for campus activities and taking "want to" courses, raising their grade point average, or holding down a part-time job. Imagine, if a student could cut 3,700 hours of his required reading time and invested only 2,500 of those hours in a job that paid $1.75 an hour, he could earn $4,375.00.

Reading Dynamics is an incredible education breakthrough. It is the definitive rapid reading method in the world today because their graduates consistently surpass the 450 to 600 words per minute rates aspired to by conventional reading courses. Most Reading Dynamics graduates can read between 1,000 and 3,000 words per minute. Many go higher, and all understand and appreciate what they read at these staggering speeds.

FREE READING DYNAMICS MINI-LESSON

Does Reading Dynamics really work? Well there is one way to find out. Come to one of the free Reading Dynamics Mini-Lessons listed below. Whether you are out of school or in, you'll find the Mini-Lesson an exciting hour well spent. You'll learn what Reading Dynamics is all about and all of your questions will be answered. And since the Mini-Lesson is a miniature version of a Reading Dynamics class, you will probably leave reading a little faster than when you came in. Of course, if you want to read a lot faster for the rest of your life you will have to sign up for the course.

Senator Alfred Alquist, Assemblyman John Vasconcellos, and Grayson Taketa, candidate for the 10th Congressional seat, will be introduced and a pleasant evening with the candidates is planned.

I'M FOR MAX!

Senator Murphy says...

"I know Max Rafferty personally as a man of integrity, courage and intelligence. Some three million Californians demonstrated their vote of confidence for the job Max Rafferty has done in education for our state when they re-elected him as Superintendent of Public Instruction in 1966.

"He is concerned, as I am, how the world's greatest nation can be torn by riots, crime and irresponsibility by such a small percentage of our total population. Max Rafferty believes, as I do, that the freedom and strength of our nation did not just happen. Millions have been killed during the past 192 years in bringing about this strength and freedom we all enjoy. Max Rafferty will be a Senator who has the guts to stand up and speak out against that small number among us who seek to destroy our great heritage."

Air minded youth working toward future

Eighty-two air-minded young people are working toward the future when they will be flying their own planes. In the meantime they are participating in the Civil Air Patrol Squadron 114 which meets every Monday evening from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the Church of Christ, 1075 W. Campbell Ave.

The group is currently conducting a membership drive for boys and girls interested in flying, ages 13 through 18 years old. This will be offered each semester for four qualifying cadets.

Coming events for the Squadron include a family picnic and a costume Hallowe'en party. Anyone interested in knowing more about the organization is invited to call Mrs. Eleanore Fleming, Warrant Officer for the C.A.P. at 378-6091 or to attend one of the weekly meetings. Nine senior members are presently assisting the group and more adult instructors are also needed.

Thanks to the seniors of '65, '66 and '67, Camden High now has a billboard on the front lawn which serves as advertisement of the student activities such as sport events and dances.

These classes donated the money for the billboard under the leadership of Dr. Ross Denison, who was the senior counselor at that time. Drawings for the location and type of sign to be used were done by Mr. Felice's '66-'67 architectural drawing class.

Del Mar Dateline

By Molly Ford and Janice Hallyburton

The Senior Class of 1969 has many big events planned for this year. Starting off with a bang, is the Senior class play, "The Madwoman of Chaillot," a French play written by Jean Giraboux. Tryouts were Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. The leading roles of the play are as follows: Elaine Berris; Madwoman of Chaillot (Countess); John Johns, Pierre; Venona Murphey, Josephine; Darlene Souza, Irma; Carol Ritchie, Gabrielle, Artha Landreth; Constance and Marie Goodman plays a Ragpicker.

The performances are tentatively set for Nov. 21, 22 and 23. According to Mr. Bill Fischer, drama advisor, the play is an insane comedy as well as being wild and expressionistic. Mr. Fischer added that he thought the play was one of the most interesting, imaginative and amusing plays of the modern theater.

Twirp Week for Del Mar starts Monday Oct. 14 to Friday Oct. 18. Monday is Slave Day (boys are slaves to girls). Tuesday is Hat, Tie, and Pigtail Day. Wednesday is Clash Day. Thursday is Slave Day again (girls are slaves to boys). Friday is silence to boys day.

"Judge Jubilation T. Cornpone's Ball," the Sadie Hawkins Dance, concludes Twirp Week on Friday night, 8 p.m. - 11 p.m. Oct. 18. Music will be provided by Fritz Rabyne.

Girls, after asking the boy of their choice, are responsible for everything. They must buy the Bid to get into the dance. The Bids will go on sale next week in front of the Dean's Office. Girls must also make a corsage for their dates. Twirp Dance this year was sponsored by the Social Affairs, headed by Molly Ford.

Del Mar's first two League football games were with Los Gatos and Campbell, respectively. Del Mar hopes to start a winning streak by beating Blackford on their field Oct. 18. Good Luck Boys!!!

Campbell Corners

By Barbara Handel

Campbell downed Del Mar last Friday with a score of 36-6. The game was an exciting one. MARK CUNNINGHAM, Dan Hanks, Steve Dunlap, Mike Beeson, Andy Morris and Randy Fujishin, made touchdowns for the Bucs'.

The half time was dedicated to the year of the campaigns for President. After the band, Pirettes, Letter Girls and Flag Girls performed, a skit was done on the Republican and Democratic candidates for President. Representing Nixon was Kim Boe and taking the place of Humphrey was Mike Whyte. Richard Panick narrated the performance. This added a bit of humor to the game.

After the game, there was a victory rally outside the boys' gym. The Flag Girls, Pirettes, and Song Girls did routines and the band played.

Our Frosh-Soph team was defeated by Del Mars' with the score of 13-20.

Next week, is our only night game against Saratoga at Los Gatos. The Frosh-Soph team starts playing at 6 and the Varsity plays around 8.

Last Friday, the Freshman had their Freshman party in the Girls' Gym from 7-10 p.m. The turnout was good and everyone had a good time.

"Theme of the Old West" is the title of the Senior play this year. Tryouts for the play were held last week and parts were chosen. The dates for the performances are Nov. 14 - 15.

Senior Cabinet members were elected last week in the government classes. At the first meeting, they discussed Senior play ticket sales and the Senior Ball.

Senior Privileges are gradually becoming a thing at Campbell. Starting Oct. 14, the Seniors will have a Senior Table. On Jan. 24, Seniors are having a dress up day celebrating half way to graduation. A Senior dress down day is being set up, but restrictions have to be made by the Senior Cabinet. Next year, Seniors will get their choice of lockers.

Sophomores and Seniors are taking California State tests all this week. A special schedule was made to follow during the week.

The PTA membership drive is now on. Any person wanting to join should contact a student or the school for a membership envelope.

The first school paper, the Campus Echo, came out last Friday. The Echo has a few new columns this year. One column gives the students a chance to write in and ask any question they want to. Uncle Em (Emmett Lucero) sees to it that the questions are answered.

Girl Scouts

NEIGHBORHOOD 15

"What have ya got goin' for ya?" Everything if you're a Girl Scout–and if you're not –don't knock it...Scouting offers so much for so little you'd be amazed. Learning new skills in the home, arts and the out-of-doors can widen the horizons of any girl or adult.

Girl Scouting is not all "cookie sales" as some would believe. It's a combination of learning, giving of one's self in the service of the community and of course, fun in the companionship with friends.

Camping definitely is a part of Scouting but this too is a learning program. Forest Hills Junior Scouts, Troop 953, just recently spent an overnight at Skylark, a Council owned camp site. Eighteen girls and their leaders participated in this event. They cooked their meals over an open fire, hiked and had an evening campfire where they sang songs and told ghost stories. Fun? You'd better believe it!

Ten of the troop members will attend the play at West Valley College this Saturday and in the near future, the Troop plans to have "Resusci-Anne" of the Campbell Fire Department visit their meeting. The Troop also plans to take the hospital tour to "find the needs" where perhaps their service to others might help.

GEORGIA GULLAND

Funeral services were held last week for Mrs. Georgia Estelle Gulland, 85, of 471 S. Virginia Ave., who passed away Oct. 7 at a local hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Gulland made her home with her daughter, Miss Frances Gulland, assistant professor of education at San Jose State College. She was the widow of the late John Sandilands Gulland, who died in 1914.

Other survivors include two nephews, Hurbert S. Hunter of Sacramento and Allen Hunter of Washington and two nieces, Mrs. Russell Justice of La Canada and Mrs. Bartholdi Peterson, Hidden Lake, Fla.

Final services were held at Greenwood Memorial Park, Phoenix, Ariz. with arrangements being made by the Place Funeral Home. Memorial gifts may be made to The First United Methodist Church of Campbell memorial fund.

WILBUR E. WIELAND

Wilbur E. Wieland, 49, 1129 El Solyo Ave., passed away Oct. 5 following a long illness. Services were held from the Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church with final interment in the Santa Clara City Cemetery.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Wieland had resided in Santa Clara County for the last 15 years.

He leaves his wife, Elaine J. Wieland of Campbell and three children. Dennis P. Wieland of Sacramento; Merry Wieland and Heidi Wieland of Ohio. Other survivors include a brother, Elmer P. Wieland and four sisters, Esther Wieland, Norma Waterbury, Lois Kondalski and Phyliss Dubou, all of Ohio.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Santa Clara Funeral Home.

PAUL S. BOZZO

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

As the elections approach and a tired Congress heads down the homestretch toward a long delayed adjournment, nerves become frayed and tempers short. There is great need at such times for a little humor and a release from tension. California Congressman Tom Rees (D-Los Angeles) has thoughtfully provided his colleagues with such a humorous diversion for three straight years.

In a light-hearted lampoon of the dozen or so "ratings" of Congressional votes, Rees recently sent a letter of congratulations to all Members of the House informing them that they had been awarded a 100% rating by Americans for Good Habits (AGH...!). Rees selected thirteen roll call votes on which all Congressmen agreed and not a dissenting vote was cast. These included a bill to protect the public from radiation (382-0), the National School Lunch Act (398-0), increased compensation for disabled veterans (389-0), and others which passed overwhelmingly. The press release which accompanied the letter attests to Congressman Rees' delightful

"AGH....! RATES CONGRESSIONAL PERFORMANCE–AN AMAZING YEAR OF UNITY

"For the third straight year, Americans for Good Habits (AGH...!) has issued its annual rating of Members of Congress. Often spoken of as 'the rating system with a heart,' AGH this year has again thoughtfully chosen key rollcall votes upon which to base its ratings.....

"Contrary to ratings compiled by such diverse organizations as the right wing Dan Smoot, the conservative Americans for Constitutional Action (ACA), the liberal Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), and the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE), all of which emphasize disagreement and friction in Congress, AGH stresses the peaceful unity of purpose and brotherhood which has enveloped this second session of the 90th Congress.

"Congressman Thomas M. Rees, founder for the Americans for Good Habits Rating System (pronounced 'aaagh'), declared: 'All Americans believing in good habits should be pleased to note that each of their elected representatives has again scored brilliantly in the AGH rating.'

..."After analyzing the various rating systems, Rees decided the key was in the choice of issues making up the ratings—these self-serving 'raters' were choosing issues which tended to show Congress as divided, rather than being positive and emphasizing the great American 'unity' issues of the session.

" 'The AGH rating was a godsend to my last campaign as it came out three weeks before the election,' stated Rees. 'During one campaign appearance, a conservative audience was raising cain over my disastrous 0% rating from Dan Smoot and my abysmal showing with ACA. I was able to put them at rest by declaring that I'd scored 100% on the Americans for Good Habits rating, ... As most of my audience was for good habits I won them over.'

" 'AGH ... gives the voters a more balanced view of the reason and goodwill which permeates our United States Congress,' Rees concluded."

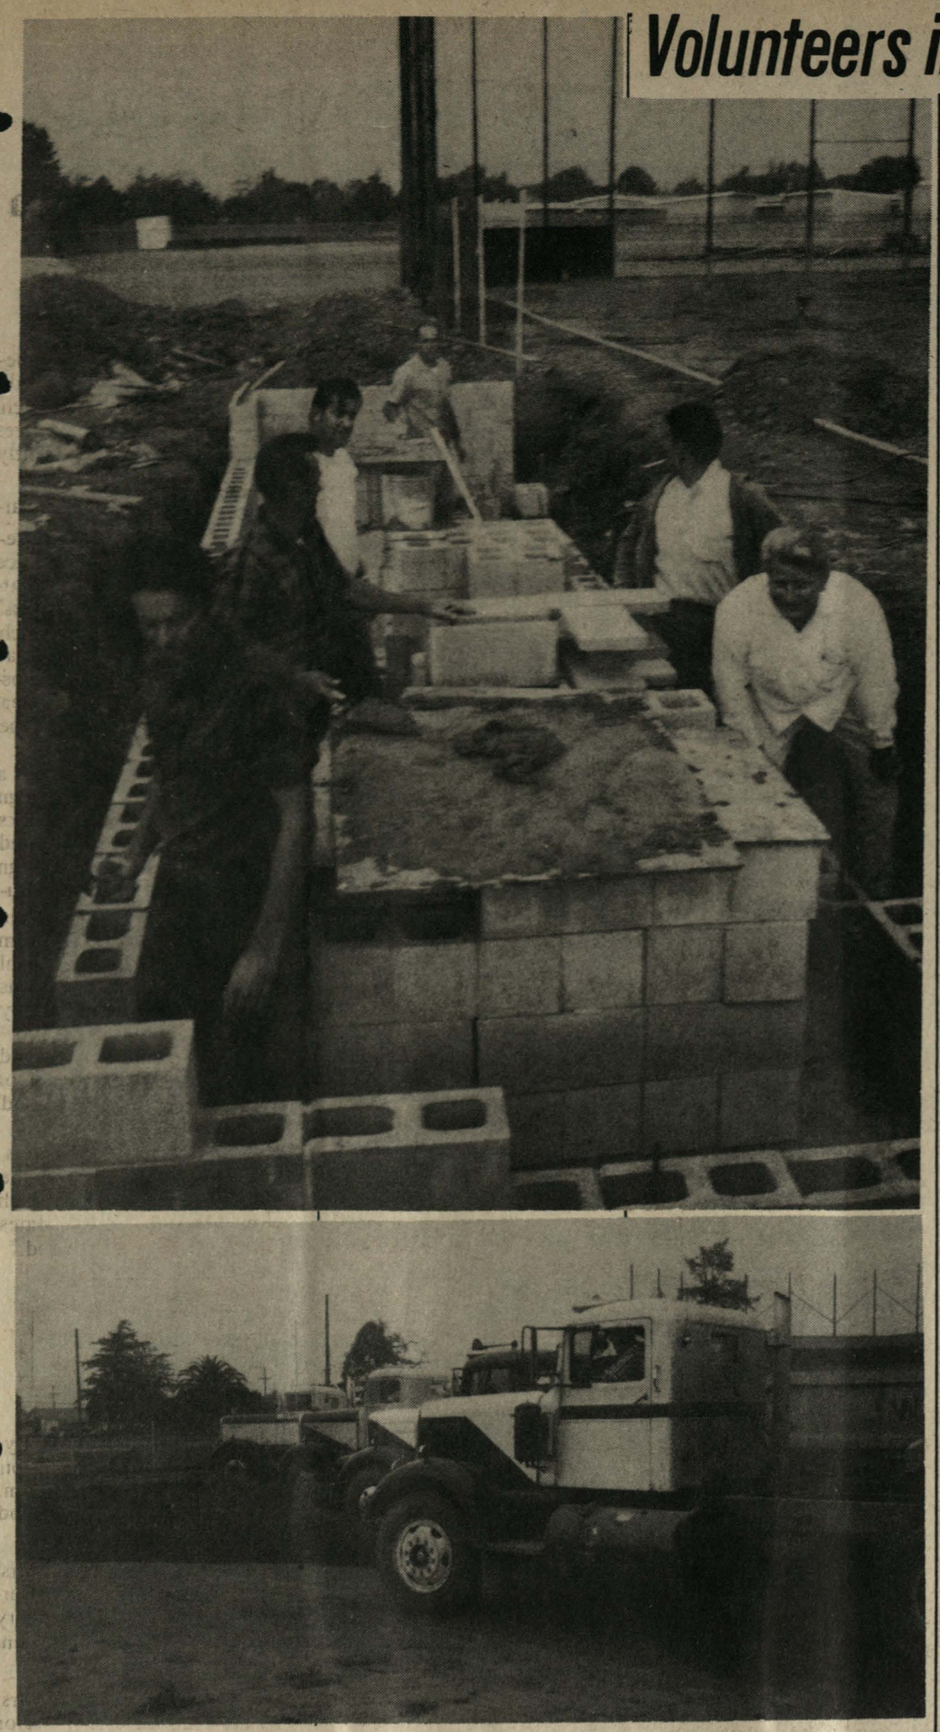
Volunteers improve Rincon Park



Without fanfare, an outstanding civic improvement project is being completed at the city-owned Rincon Park.

Spearheaded by adult leaders of the Campbell-Moreland Pony League, a modern baseball field with all the necessary accessories is being constructed at the park with volunteer labor and with most of the materials being donated by civic-minded individuals, groups and business firms.

Chuck Cannady is project chairman for the development.

Although pleased with the cooperation the league has received from the city and other civic groups, Cannady this week listed the items badly needed to complete the project.

These include: 2000-feet of 2-inch pipe and a 4-inch cut trenching machine. Anyone who can furnish these items or who can direct the group to where they can be obtained are asked to contact Cannady at 374-0986 or the Campbell city clerk's office (378-8141) where one can leave his name and be contacted later.

Examples of how individuals, organizations and business firms have cooperated in the civic project is illustrated in the two pictures above.

Helping construct the dugout (top picture) are Paul Judd, Harold Hall, Ray Kiellion, Colin McKinney, Dutch Hahn and Leo Mondragon, project superintendent.

W.S.P., a local trucking firm, has assisted in the park project also. In the lower photo Charles Gibbons and his crew from W.S.P., Jack Aganaga, Jack Flanager, James Diehl, Jim Raswell and Nathan Ablanis are "on the line" ready to lend their time and equipment.

The seminar offers a series of eight conferences presenting outstanding management ideas which have meant sharply increased profits for small businessmen.

Owners and employees of local business are invited to attend. Reservations are now being accepted, with registration limited to 40 persons, to be filled on a first-come, first-served basis, by the Office of Community Services, West Valley College, 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, 95008.

LOTS OF BOATS

The boating industry estimates that more than 40 million Americans currently take to the water for recreation in boats of various categories.

Pop Warner grid league opens

More than 100 youngsters in the 10-13 and 12-15 age groups are participating in Pop Warner Football locally working out at Westmont High School.

The Pop Warner League opened on Sept. 29 at the Westmont field. The next home game will be on Sunday, Nov. 10 at noon. There is no admission to the games.

The local teams are known as the Green (ages 12-15) and Gold (ages 10-13) Berets. Part of the squad is pictured above.

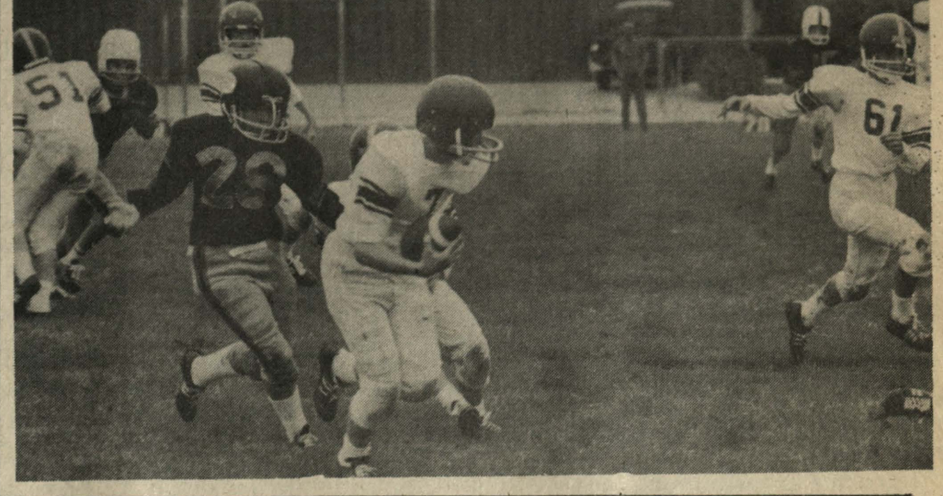
Vikings score win over Menlo

Dave Ray scored four touchdowns and rambled for 226 yards in 11 tries as the West Valley College Vikings topped the Menlo Oaks 65 to 14 last Saturday night at Buck Shaw Stadium.

The Vikes put the game away as they scored 45 points in the second half after leading 20 to 14 at the break.

The team's record now stands at three wins and one loss. The Vikings will open Camino Norte Conference action next Saturday when they travel to Kentfield to take on the Marin Tars.



Gigantic 'ear' becomes vital link in satellite operation

A gigantic "ear" beamed to the heavens will become the vital link between Campbell and Pacific Ocean countries later this year following the launch of Communications Satellite Corporation's (COMSAT) Intelsat III satellite.

The "ear" is actually a parabolic dish antenna 97 feet in diameter, weighing 34 tons and positioned atop a large pedestal at the Jamesburg Earth Satellite Station about 30 miles southeast of Monterey in Cachagua Valley.

Jamesburg and two other stations--one in West Virginia and the other in Puerto Rico-will be operated in conjunction with the 1200-circuit Intelsat III satelite. The space vehicle is scheduled for launching in November. It will be positioned 22,300 miles from Jamesburg over the equator.

Primary use of the Jamesburg facility will be for sending and receiving telephone calls from the continental U.S. to overseas Pacific points and vice versa. The station also will be used to send and receive telegraph, television, facsimile and date communications services.

Communications going to and from Jamesburg will travel by microwave transmission. An example of television transmissions received from the satellite by the Jamesburg "ear" will be processed as follows:

The signal will be introduced into a cable feed to a nearby American Telephone and Telegraph Co. microwave station near the site. It will then be relayed by microwave stations to Carmel, Salinas, Loma Prieta, Sierra Morena and Bernal Heights near San Francisco.

From Bernal Heights, the video portion will be sent to Grant Avenue Television Operating Center in San Francisco and the audio portion will go to Oakland.

The Bell System, of which Pacific Telephone Co. is a subsidiary, is the world's largest commercial user of satellite facilities. It uses 250 circuits to route calls between the U.S. and Pacific Ocean countries. Long Lines Department, AT&T's overseas and interstate operating unit, leases satellite circuits from COMSAT. The Jamesburg facility was constructed by COMSAT.

Just as television transmission is relayed to and from Jamesburg, telephone or data communications will be communicated in similar manner.

From Campbell, calls going perhaps to Japan or Viet Nam via satellite will go first to Oakland and then via microwave to Jamesburg. Calls going from overseas will be processed to Oakland and then into the Bell System for nationwide distribution or for retransmission overseas.

BIG EAR--With its 34-ton "ear" to the heavens, the Jamesburg Earth Satellite Station in Cachugua Valley, 30 miles southeast of Monterey, is ready for operation beginning in November. The huge parabolic antenna is 97-feet in diameter and sits atop a gigantic pedestal.

It is capable of moving in an arc to receive and transmit communications signals via Intelsat III satellite which will be positioned over the Pacific Ocean.

Gas pump ends up loser as car goes beserk

Sgt. Al Knox, Campbell police officer, was cautious early Tuesday morning when he approached a car parked at Hamilton Ave. and Winchester.

A man was slumped over the wheel, apparently asleep with the motor running, headlights on and the heater on full blast.

Knox carefully reached into the car to turn off the switch, but in doing so the sleeper, Joe Richard Alves, 37, of 2043 Orlando St., San Jose awoke with a start, floored the accelerator and the car, which was in gear, took off, knocking Knox to the ground.

While Knox radioed for assistance the car careened across Winchester Blvd., bounced over the dividing strip, up the sidewalk and into the gas pump of the Mobil service station owned by Dick McHanah, 270 Umburger Rd., San Jose. The pump was knocked down and after Knox recovered from his fall, Alves was placed under arrest.

Thieves clean out tool shed rental shop

Tool Shed Rentals, 2420 S. Winchester Ave. lost equipment valued at $20,000 over the weekend when thieves made off with power equipment, wrenches, generators and other rental equipment--but left them with $30 in change.

The padlock which closed the side gate was cut and the robbers entered the storage area, pried open the locked garage door and cleaned out the entire rental equipment, apparently using a hand truck for trundling the various units to a truck apparently parked outside the fence. Three large generators were removed indicating the usage of power equipment. Campbell police are presently investigating leads.

Sidney G. McKenney, 1700 Winchester Blvd. returned home from a trip to discover that his daughter, Judy, had checked his house while he was gone and found that the home had been entered and ransacked. Dresser drawers were removed and the contents scattered and windows had been smashed. Missing were an Italian hand pistol, a ladies diamond wrist watch, a foreign coin collection, a cameo ring and 9 Blue Chip stamp books and 8 S & H Green stamp books.

Westmont Wails

By Keith Hohlfedlt

Last Friday, Westmont lost another varsity football game to Prospect, with a score of 29 to 13. In this game former Westmont players were playing against players of their old Alma Mater. Both of Westmonts' touchdowns were made by long bombs from Craig Chelonis, who was brought up from the Frosh-Soph team just a few days before.

On the Cross Country scene, Westmont's varsity upholds its undefeated standing by defeating Saratoga and Branham in a triangular meet at Westmont last Thursday. Scott McVay tied the 2.1 mile course record at Westmont with a 10.16 time. Scott took first, Randy Carlson second, Jeff Christianson third, Keith Gentry fifth and Ron Gutman took seventh.

Last Saturday at the Camden Invitational, Westmont's varsity Warriors captured a second place of the over 25 schools that participated. The famous Homestead took first. Scott McVay of Westmont took a fifth place.

At a cheerleader rally on Oct. 6 in Fresno, Westmont's cheerleaders, song girls and Satin Dolls received fourth place in competition from some 27 schools in California.

Westmont's flag girls have received first place in the state competition which includes competition from schools all over California. They have received this honor now for four consecutive years.

Westmont will hold a mock presidential election on either Oct. 31 or Nov. 1. The election will be conducted almost exactly like that of the national presidential election. Students must register to vote, and they will vote according to precincts. Precincts will be determined by classes. The ballot will contain all of the presidential candidates, their running mates and their party affiliations. The purpose of the election is to give students a voice in national affairs.

Prospect Pulse

By Pat Hebard

Victorious Panthers smeared the Westmont Warriors last Friday afternoon. The score was 29 to 14. Touchdowns were made by Kevin Barnes, Steve Shoemaker, Eric Test, and Jon Christianson. When the boys returned to the school after the game they were welcomed by the band, and spirit commission.

The Drill Team, Flag Girls, cheerleaders, and song girls all entertained them. The victory rally was concluded with a chorus line made up of all the girls and the football team doing the can-can. As the boys entered the locker room they were confronted with signs which read, "We Love Our Team".

Friday afternoon before the game there was a rally to encourage students to come to the game. The spirit commission correctly predicted the outcome of the Prospect-Westmont game. There was competition between the classes in spirit in which the Seniors won.

The COPPER BRICK WINDOW provided music for the Prospect students at the dance last Friday night..There was a large turnout for the dance and the mood was enjoyable because of the victory that afternoon.

Prospect students in speech and debate attended the Student Congress held at Camden last Saturday. Students came from as far as Fremont to participate. Students resolved on four resolutions.

Young Life, a youth club, meets every Tuesday night at the recreation hall on the corner of Payne and Eden. Prospect meets jointly with Campbell.

Prospect's Hallowe'en Queen is senior Susan Era. She is competing with Carol Fischer from Campbell. Both girls will try and raise as much money from their school.

Whoever gets the most will reign on Hallowe'en and will get a scholarship to Malibu or Colorado for the summer. These are camps that interested Young Life members may attend for two weeks each summer. Bob Roderson is the club leader. Andy Morris is president.
